

From: Corey May
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 3:34pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The Microsoft settlement was a very bad idea. Microsoft is getting away with it again, basically by buying their way out of their problems. They continue, and will continue to go on styling the internet and the computing world in their own image, without consideration for the computing public's needs and fair business practices.

Please do not let this 800 pound gorilla rule the day just because they have unlimited funds. Please hold them accountable.

Corey May